Government of India has rolled out two Social Security Schemes, namely, Pradhan Mantri Jeevan Jyoti Bima Yojana (PMJJBY) and Pradhan Mantri Suraksha Bima Yojana (PMSBY) in the country with a view to financially empowering people and providing social security to them.

The salient features of the two schemes are indicated below:

PMJJBY

All saving bank holders in the age group of 18 to 50 years in the participating banks are entitled to join PMJJBY. In case of multiple saving bank accounts held by an individual in one or different banks, the person is eligible to join the Scheme through only one savings bank account. Aadhar is the primary KYC for the bank account. A sum of Rs 2 lakhs is payable on members' death due to any reason.

Under PMJJBY, the premium payable by a subscriber is Rs 330/- per annum. The premium is deducted from the account holder's saving bank account through 'auto debit' facility in one instalment, as per the option given under the Scheme. The next annual renewal date is each successive 1st of June in subsequent years.
