1.	The date from which revised pension in respect of State Judicial Officers who have retired prior to 01-01-2006 shall be 50% of the minimum of the post held at the time of retirement as revised from time to time has not been mentioned. In absence of specific date, the date of issue of Govt. Order (in the instant case 12-09-2013) is taken as date of effect.	Revised pension in respect of pre-01-01-2006 Retd. State Judicial Officers as ordered vide G. O. No. 202-F of 2013 dated 12-09-2013 is effective from 01-01-2006.

The Accountant General (A&E),

No. A/29(96)-I-192

Dated 08-01-2014.

Subject :—Grant of upgradation under SRO-59 of 2/1990 after 15-01-1996 to certain categories of Engineering Departments.

Sir,

Kindly refer your No. PNR-1/SRO-59/12-13/3522-29 dated 26-3-2013 on the subject captioned above. In this context the doubts expressed is clarified as under :—

S. No.	Doubts expressed	Clarification
1	2	3
1.	Whether the criteria/norms as laid in Govt. Order dated 21-02-1994 is applicable to those only who are appointed on or after 21-02-1994. In respect of cases whose benefit of SRO-59 dated 6-2-1990 was not given due to procedural delay and is now granted retrospectively from a date which is prior to 21-2-1994 whether in such cases norms as laid down in the Govt. Order dated 21-2-1994 shall have to be observed before allowing elevation from a lower grade to higher grade.	The issue stands already clarified to the PWD in response to their reference vide U. O. No. A/29 (96)-II-923 dated 24-2-2010, clarifying therein that the provisions/benefits of the Government Order No. 84-PW dated 21-2-1994 are prospective and would not apply to the persons in service before 21st February, 1994.

	2. The Jammu and Kashmir Civil Services (Revised) Pay Rules, 1987, are applicable to work charge employees also and as such provision of Appendix 2-A inserted in the said rules vide SRO-59 dated 6-2-1990 are also applicable to work charge employees. Following points arises :— I. Whether while working out prescribed number of years for elevation from lower grade to higher grade as required under G. O. No. 84-PW of 1994 entire Work Charge service shall be taken into account or only 50% of Work Charge service shall be accounted for. II. Whether daily wages service shall be accounted for while calculating the number of years for elevation from lower grade as required under G. O. No. 84-PW of 1994 dated 21-2-1994. If daily wage service is to be taken in calculation then how much portion, thereof shall be taken.	Since the Pay Rules, 1987 are applicable to Work Charge employees and as such it is obvious that the Appendix inserted vide SRO-59 shall apply to Work Charge employees. However, their elevation from lower grade to higher grade in terms of G. O. No. 84-PW of 1994 dated 21-2-1994 shall be taken into account only after their regularisation on substantive basis. In respect of daily wagers also their elevation from lower grade to higher grade in terms of G. O. No. 84-PW of 1994 dated 21-2-1994 shall be taken into account only after their regularisation on the substantive basis

Cases have come to the notice in which benefit is granted retrospectively by issuing procedural delay certificates as per Finance Department letter No. A/29 (96)-112 dated 9-6-2002. Subject :—Clarification to Rule 67 of the Jammu and Kashmir Civil Services (Leave) Rules, 1979 recast vide SRO-274 dated 30th May, 2013.

Doubts have been expressed by various Administrative Departments regarding application of SRO-274 dated 30th May, 2013 as to whether the in-service candidates/officers who are on study leave on the date of issue of the notification can be paid salary for the remaining period of leave.

The issue has been examined in the Finance Department and it is clarified that the notification has prospective effect and as such, the Government servants who had been on study leave (without pay and allowances) on the date of issue of SRO-274 are not entitled to the leave salary for the remaining period of leave.

Accordingly, all the Administrative Departments are requested to communicate the above clarificatory instructions to all Heads of Departments to settle such cases.
